

TWO HUNDRED MEMBERS

Invited for the Chamber of Commerce Reorganization.

COMMITTEE BEGINS ITS WORK

List of Citizens Who Should be in the Movement Will be Prepared, and Then Calls Will be Made—Eight New Signers.

Two hundred members, no more and no less, are wanted for the Chamber of Commerce under the proposed plan of reorganization. The special committee of 25 appointed by the progress dinner is starting out with the view of signing up 200 of the best and most progressive citizens of the community, and it is believed that the list will be completed long before the date set for the submission of the plan to the chamber.

The committee held its first meeting at Hotel Warwick last night. An organization was perfected, with Mr. George R. Dabney as chairman, Mr. H. H. Holmes as vice-chairman and Mr. Ivan H. Wise as secretary. As Mr. Dabney was obliged to leave early in order to catch the steamer for Baltimore, Mr. Holmes was called to the chair by Dr. Clarence D. Jones, chairman of the chamber, who presided until after the organization.

Upon motion by Mr. Phillips, a special committee, consisting of the chairman, vice-chairman and three other members was appointed to prepare a list of citizens regarded as available for membership. The committee will be divided into pairs, and a certain number of names will be assigned to each pair. The committee will call upon the men assigned to them and give them an opportunity to join.

In the meantime, all progressive citizens are invited to become members, and those who do not care to wait until they are called upon may enter the matter by seeing Messrs. Dabney or Holmes, or any other member of the committee of 25.

Messrs. L. C. Phillips, J. E. Warren and Horace Epps were appointed to serve with the chairman and vice-chairman on the sub-committee. The sub-committee will meet tonight to prepare the list of names.

It was decided to get buttons to be worn by those who join in the movement. If possible the buttons will be secured before the next meeting of the committee of twenty-five, which will be held at the Warwick next Monday night. A resolution was adopted calling upon every member to attend the next meeting, bringing with him a "joiner."

At the last progress dinner, 34 signatures were placed on the list of members. Since that time Messrs. M. H. Lash, Elias Poyser, W. S. Upshur, Louis C. Phillips, George C. Maud, C. B. Nelms, R. D. Holloway and J. E. Warren have added their names.

Attending the committee meeting last night were: Dr. Clarence Porter Jones, Messrs. W. E. Cottrell, H. B. Holmes, George R. Dabney, W. S. Upshur, L. C. Phillips, J. E. Warren, W. B. Copeland, Horace Epps, George C. Maud, J. Hinton Graves, C. B. Nelms, W. Lee Powell and Ivan H. Wise.

BIG FIRE RAGING.

Fleeced That Flames May Get to Giant Trees of California.

SONORA, CAL., August 10. — Fire is raging near the grove of big trees in Calaveras county, 20 miles north of Sonora. Although the flames have reached the south grove wherein are some of the sequoia it is not believed that the big trees are in danger, as they stand in marshy ground where the fire could scarcely find dry material to feed on.

A large force of men has gone to fight the fire, however. Backfiring is used to stay the progress of the fire, which also extends over the line into Tuolumne county.

This grove is the mariposa big tree grove in Yosemite Park.

READY TO CLOSE DEAL

Deal for Almshouse Site Will be Signed Today.

COMMITTEE DID NOT HAVE QUORUM

Meeting Was Called for Purpose of Selecting Another Site on Account of Report That West-Jones Heirs Had Disagreed.

A meeting of the almshouse and poor committee was scheduled to be held last night for the purpose of considering the matter of selecting a site for the proposed almshouse. There was no quorum, and later in the evening it developed that there was no occasion for the meeting.

It was reported yesterday that the deal for the purchase of 45 acres of the West-Jones estate, in Elizabeth City county, which has been authorized by the council, would have to be abandoned because certain heirs of the estate had refused to sign the deed transferring the property.

Mr. R. W. West, one of the heirs, states that there is no trouble in regard to the signing of the deed and that it will be ready for delivery to the city today. It seems that it was necessary to send the paper to Boston and New York for signatures, and this caused the delay. All of the Jones heirs have now signed, and Mr. West states that the West heirs will affix their signatures as soon as they are given the opportunity. The deed was received from New York last night.

VOGUE OF PICTURE SHOWS

How the Film Replaces Bad or In-different Actors.

(New York Sun.)

The mayor's office has issued more than 120 licenses for moving picture shows in Manhattan and the Bronx, and that does not include all of the resorts in the two boroughs. Some of these are still showing under contract or theater licenses, not yet expired, and others to open up again are now closed.

More significance than mere numbers is the character of the theaters now used permanently for such exhibitions. Among them are the old Keith's in Fourteenth street, the former Proctor theaters in Twenty-third and Fifty-eighth streets, and the Harlem Opera House. Then there are the Lewey and the Gotham, which were considered gold mines until it was discovered that the moving picture people could afford better to pay the rents and make a profit. In addition to these two, Proctor's old house goes into the moving picture business in the fall. Some of the regular theaters have gone into the moving picture business merely as a summer snap, as this number are and the Fourteenth Street. In addition to the supply thus catalogued, the Grand Opera House, the Bijou in Manhattan and the Bronx every resort near the city has its picture shows.

Mr. Hammerstein Explains. "The most mysterious thing about these moving picture shows," said William Hammerstein, of the Victoria, "is that the manager who rented the theater for say $30,000 a year could not make the rent. If he had a second or third rate vaudeville show, one of the kind that travels in the country and comes into the second rate New York theaters to play for a week, his running expenses for the show alone would never be less than from $3,000 to $3,500 a week. In order to get that back he could give a matinee every day, evening shows, and two concerts on Sunday, helped out with outside talent. Even then it was difficult for the manager to come out all right when everything was not favorable.

"Yet the managers of the picture shows do not hesitate to pay the same rent, and they are certainly making money on all sides or there would not be the increase in these places. The man has practically no expense—his rent. He does not even have bills for lighting, because the theater is dark, except in the intermission between shows. A man or a woman to sell tickets, perhaps two ushers and an electrician to operate the films, and there is his entire personnel. The managers who show only pictures install their own machines permanently, so they have to rent only the films. In many of these places they are not particular about having brand new films.

"Whatever their business may be during the week, these more pretentious picture shows can count on having from 5,000 to 6,000 persons on Saturdays and Sundays. On these days they can give 30 shows from noon to midnight. That business on two days of the week alone pays their expenses, and what comes in for the rest of the time is velvet. One great saving for these shows is that they never advertise except by means of placards in front of the theaters. Now if you can point out a single item on which these picture show people have not got the cheaper vaudeville managers stung to death, I'd like to know where it is.

Any Time, Any Clothes, Anywhere. One of the vaudeville agents in the St. James Building does not believe that the present rage for the picture shows that the present rage for the picture shows means that vaudeville will suffer. "People who have been in the habit of attending the cheaper variety shows and melodramas," he said, "think now of the great difference between 10 and 50 cents much more than they did a year ago. The man in this class has always to pay for two. If he can get some entertainment by spending half an hour in one of these places it takes the place of the visit to the theatre that he would have made a year ago. To see any kind of a show for only 5 cents is something to him, even if it does not last half as long as what he used to go to see. Then the picture shows to go to see. They invite the man in the street. They are open wherever he goes, and he can walk in without the preparation of going to the theaters and find the audience of a kind that does not care how he is dressed. That has been another great factor in their success.

Good Variety Not Affected. "Yet all of these attractions are only for the theatregoers who spend very little money. The patrons of the first-class vaudeville theatres are not affected by this economy. The struggle is to find enough good talent to fill out a program. There were too many vaudeville theaters in New York as the introduction of the stock companies proved. Now the fact that no new vaudeville theatres have come into existence to take the places of the houses given over to the moving picture shows that those houses were superfluous.

There is much enthusiasm among audience for good vaudeville as the ever was, but it has got to be good. The standard now is high. There are so many more vaudeville theaters than there are good artists and the competition is so great that these actors get what they ask. That has sent up salaries, but the managers have to pay them. Go and ask Hammerstein, for instance, at the Victoria, why he pays a man or a woman $1,000 a week. Do you suppose he would do that if he could get for half the price somebody who would draw the same money to the house?

"Any vaudeville manager who was truthful would tell you that his receipts varied according to the nature of his program. When he has a weak bill he feels it by Tuesday night.

Followed Sarah in Paris. "The moving picture shows," said one of the agents, who has just returned from his annual trip to Europe, "are much more conspicuous in amusements on the Continent than there are here. In Paris some of the houses specially put up to hold them charge as much as 5 francs or $1, for the best seats. Of course, that price is the maximum, and it tapers down to a figure approximately the same as ours. All the theatres are given over to these entertainments.

"When 'The Thief' finished its great run at the Gymnase on a Sunday night the cinematograph began promptly the next afternoon. When there is a vacancy of several days at Sarah Bernhardt's Theatre and the house is not needed for rehearsals the picture shows light up and there is an all-day performance until something else is ready. So there is a possibility that the moving picture show, provided that companies continue to improve it, may some day take on a larger importance in the amusement business here even than it does today, when only the cheaper priced enterprises have been affected by its popularity."

ATHLETICS RETURN HOME.

Local Ball Players Left Entire Series at Petersburg.

The Newport News Athletics, of the Peninsula League, returned to this city Sunday from Petersburg, where they lost every game of a series of four with the strong Petersburg nine. In the opening game of a double-header Saturday, however, the Athletics gave the Petersburg players a hard fight, the game lasting eleven innings and the locals finally losing out by a score of 2 to 1.

Opening of the Academy. Manager Booker announces that the Academy of Music will open on August 26 or 27 with Yule's "Devil's Auction." The list of bookings for the season has not arrived, but it is expected that quite a number of good attractions will be on the list.

More Inspections. Sanitary Inspector Harris waylaid half a dozen or more dairy wagons Sunday morning and inspected their products. All of the milk was found to contain the required amount of butter fat.

In the police court yesterday morning the case of Ed. Stevenson, charged with taking a pocket book from a small boy, was continued until tomorrow on account of the absence of an important witness.

BABY'S EYESIGHT WAS THREATENED

By Terrible Eczema—Head Became a Mass of Itching Rash and Sores—Would Scratch Till Blood Came—Much Money Wasted in Fruitless Treatments—Disease Was Soon

CURED AT SLIGHT COST BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Our little girl was two months old when she got a rash on her face and within five days her face and head were all one sore. We used different remedies but it got worse instead of better and we thought she would turn blind and that her ears would fall off. She suffered terribly, and would scratch until the blood came. At night we had to pin her hands down. This went on until she was five months old, then I had her under our family doctor's care, but she continued to grow worse. He said it was eczema. When she was seven months old I started to use Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent, and in three weeks—what a change! I kept using the Cuticura Remedies for two months and my baby was a different girl. You could not see a sign of a sore and she was as fat as a new-born baby, and all for the small cost of a dollar and seventy-five cents where we had spent ten times the money for doctors. She is now two years old and has not had a sign of the eczema since. Mrs. H. F. Budke, R. F. D. 4, LeSueur, Minn., Apr. 15 and May 2, 1907."

SLEEP KILLED

By an Itching Humor. Another Cure by Cuticura Remedies.

"I broke out with a humor which spread almost all over my body. The itching would get worse on retiring, so I could not sleep. I tried several remedies but it grew worse until I got some Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Pills which began to relieve me at once. By the time I had used one trial of the Pills, the humor was entirely gone. I wish every sufferer could secure the Cuticura Remedies. Travis Bates, Hamburg, Ark., April 26, 1907."
